

EXTENDING TIME FOR COMPLETING BRIDGE ACROSS DELAWARE RIVER

DECEMBER 10, 1924.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. WYANT, from the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. R. 10352]

The Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 10352) to extend the time for completing the construction of a bridge across the Delaware River, having considered the same, report thereon with a recommendation that it pass.

The bill has the approval of the War and Agriculture Departments, as will appear by the letters attached and which are made a part of this report.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
December 9, 1924.

Respectfully returned to the chairman Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, House of Representatives.

So far as the interests committed to this department are concerned, I know of no objection to the favorable consideration by Congress of the accompanying bill, H. R. 10352, Sixty-eighth Congress, second session, "To extend the time for completing the construction of a bridge across the Delaware River."

JOHN W. WEEKS,
Secretary of War.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
Washington, December 9, 1924.

Hon. SAMUEL E. WINSLOW,
Chairman Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce,
House of Representatives.

DEAR MR. WINSLOW: Mr. Layton, clerk for your committee, has advised by telephone that on December 6 there was referred to this department the bill H. R. 10352 for report thereon and for such views relative thereto as the department might desire to communicate.

This bill has not been received by the department yet, but Mr. Layton has advised that it provides for extending the time for completion of a bridge previously authorized to be constructed over the Delaware River at Trenton, N. J., by the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Pennsylvania Newark Railroad. It is understood that the bill relates purely to the construction of a railroad bridge. This department, therefore, can see no objection to favorable action thereon.

Sincerely,

C. V. MARVIN, Acting Secretary.
